I agree thay get to much money. Thay should give a big amount to the people who need it. If thay would we would have less people Dieing. I see thef point on not geting auto money. But we work hard and Barly get by and thay dont even black a sweat.

It get's me so angree some people. Like actors that complain about not geting enough money. All they have to do is say afew words on T.V. Ther all redy set for life. Models to I now it can be hard sometimes but still.

The athletes I can see making a great deal of money. Because they may get injurd and can die. But our Militefy dont get nearly as much money and they risk their lifes for us. So they should give a lot to the army. I know a lot of people agree with that.

Musicians they practice hard and sweat all day. To get nearly as good as thay are. I now alot of people who are musicians. But when thay go Big and make all that money it goes to their heads. Thay stop thinking about the people and just start thinking about the money.

So that is why I agree with the people. They dont care whin they get the money it is over.

Score Point: 3

This response reflects a limited degree of proficiency in persuasive writing skills. An organizational structure is evident, and a clear position agreeing that celebrities make more money than they deserve is cited. Although some explanation of the writer's key idea is specific (everyone works hard but actors, models, athletes, and musicians make a lot more money), the overall development of the response is inadequate and repetitive. The introduction and conclusion are weak, and some errors in writing conventions are evident.
