·School is a trouble for me. There are things about school that I like here are few my freinds, Some teachers, and the joy of education. I usually don't like school. It just depends on how I feel. Most mornings are Crummy.

·To me, every one needs freinds. All of mine are at school. We write notes, and have fun. Sometimes, we have each other over at our house. Thats the main reason I enjoy school.

·Teachers are cool sometimes. There are a few I think are cool all of the time. My worst subject last year is my favorite this year. It's the teacher that I like. He's funny, and we still learn.

·My future job won't end with, "do you want fries with that?" My education is important to me. I plan on going to collage. Staying on the right track. Yeah, its boring sometimes. Other times it's fun.

·To some school is confusing. I admit, it is for me at times. I think everyone needs freinds, teachers, and a education. I don't like School that much. Except days like fridays.
