

ATTENTION

CHANGE IN PAYMENT POLICY

As of October 15, 2009, the Tennessee Alcoholic Beverage Commission ("TABC") will no longer accept cash payments for application fees, license fees, or citation payments. The Agency will only accept checks written on business accounts, money orders or certified checks for the above referenced fees.

In addition, as of October 15, 2009, the TABC will no longer accept cash payments for server training fees. Certified server trainers may only pay fees with checks written on business or personal accounts, money orders or certified checks.

The TABC will continue to accept cash payments for server permits, employee permits, and wholesaler representative permits.

All returned checks will be subject to a $25 fee.
