

JACKSON ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY

July 2014

The Jackson Archaeological Society will meet Tuesday, July 15th at 6:00 pm at the Catfish Galley, highland Avenue. The purpose of this Society is to learn more about past Native American cultures and the early historic period of Tennessee. Our meetings are held on the third Tuesday of each month and are Free and open to the public.

Roundtable Discussion on New Meeting Place

With the budget cuts and schedule changes at the Jackson Public Library we are forced to find a new location for our Society meetings. I have reserved the small conference room (6pm) at the Catfish Galley on Highland to discuss possibilities for a future meeting place. I plan to arrive there at 5:00 to sample the menu, and welcome all to join me prior to the meeting.

After the business at hand I will provide a brief slide show on the prestigious McClung Museum in Knoxville, Tennessee.

See you Tuesday, Mark
