

Old Stone Fort Archaeological Society

January 2008

The Old Stone Fort Archaeological Society will meet Thursday, January 10th at 6:00 pm at the Old Stone Fort Museum in Manchester, Tennessee. The purpose of this Society is to learn more about prehistoric Native American cultures and the early historic period of Tennessee. Our program this month:

Shawn Chapman

who will present

History and Ecology: American Indian Use of the Barrens in the 18th Century

Archaeologist Shawn Chapman will be presenting information combining previous ecological studies at Arnold Air Force Base along with the local archaeological record, and historical and ethnohistorical research on the early interaction of surrounding American Indian groups and European colonists of the 18th century.

Thanks to Bruce Burton for sharing his research on Archaeoastronomy at the Old Stone Fort at our December meeting.

Our meetings are Free and open to the public. Invite your friends and family; see you at the meeting, Mark
