TO: Retailers selling to Agricultural Certificates of Exemption holders
FROM: Tennessee Department of Revenue
SUBJECT: Non-qualifying purchases
DATE: November 2013

The Department of Revenue would like to remind retailers that farmers and others who hold Tennessee Agricultural Certificates of Exemption may only use those certificates to purchase certain items tax-free under state law (Tenn. Code Ann. § 67-6-207). A list of these items is on the back of this notice.

The department encourages retailers that sell these items, as well as other things that do not qualify for tax exemption, to post this list prominently in their stores. Doing so should help alleviate any confusion agricultural certificate holders may have about this matter.

- a) Clothing
- b) Automobiles, trucks, automotive oil, tires, parts and repair
- c) Trailers for use over the road, except livestock trailers (e.g., equipment trailers, utility trailers, flat-bed trailers, cargo trailers, grain trailers and ATV trailers)
- d) Materials that become real property when installed, including gravel, concrete, building materials and fencing materials (other than temporary corral panels/gates and electric fencing)
- e) Water, for any use or purpose
- f) Household appliances (e.g., refrigerators, freezers, ranges, ovens)
- g) Lawn mowers
- h) Pet food and medications
