

January 12, 2010

The Honorable Dolores R. Gresham
Tennessee General Assembly
308 War Memorial Bldg.
Nashville, TN 37243

RECEIVED
2010 JAN 25 AM 11:33
BUREAU OF ETHICS
& CAMPAIGN FINANCE

Dear Sen. Gresham:

For more than 125 years the Tennessee Press Association and the Tennessee General Assembly have allied on numerous occasions to ensure unfettered dialogue between the citizens of Tennessee and their state and local government officials. In order that we may have an opportunity to recognize you and your fellow legislators for the critical role you play in ensuring that the First Amendment to the U. S. Constitution is alive and well in Tennessee, the General Assembly has been invited to attend the:

TENNESSEE PRESS ASSOCIATION
2010 OPENING RECEPTION
DOUBLETREE HOTEL, DOWNTOWN NASHVILLE
315 FOURTH AVENUE NORTH
WEDNESDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 10
5:30 P.M. - 7:00 P.M.

RSVP to our headquarters office at (865) 584-5761 or call your local newspaper publisher with your intentions to attend the reception. We look forward to seeing you.

Sincerely,

Greg M. Sherrill
Executive Director

- cc: Patricia Sims, The Crockett Times, Alamo, 731/696-4558
Melissa Ferge, Bulletin Times, Bolivar, 731/658-3691
Publisher, States-Graphic, Brownsville, 731/772-1172
Scott Whaley, Chester County Independent, Henderson, 731/989-4624
Joe Hurd, The Courier, Savannah, 731/925-6397
Jim Thompson, The Courier, Savannah, 731/925-6397
Janet Rail, Independent Appeal, Selmer, 731/645-5346
Arthur Rhea, The Fayette Falcon, Somerville, 901/465-3567
Dan A. Cole, The Wayne County News, Waynesboro, 931/722-5429

TENNESSEE PRESS ASSOCIATION