Additional Required Documentation:

If you are claiming United States citizenship, you must present one (1) of the following:

- Social security number (If you provided your social security number on the pervious page, no additional documentation is required. However, please be aware that efforts may be made to verify any such number.):
- A valid Tennessee driver's license or photo identification issued by the Department of Safety;
- A valid driver's license or photo identification license from another state where the issuance requirements are at least as strict as those in Tennessee, as determined by the Department of Safety;
- An official birth certificate issued by a state, jurisdiction, or territory of the United States, including Puerto Rico, United States Virgin Island, Northern Mariana Islands, American Samoa, Swains Island, or Guam (except that Puerto Rican birth certificates issued before July 1, 2010, shall not be recognized);
- A United States government-issued certified birth certificate;
- A valid, unexpired United States passport;
- A United States certificate of birth abroad (DS-1350 or FS-545);
- A report of birth abroad of a citizen of the United States (FS-240):
- A certificate of citizenship (N560 or N561);
- A certificate of naturalization (N5550, N570, or N578);
- A United States citizen identification card (I-197, I-179); or
- Any successor document of those listed at Tenn. Code Ann. § 4-58-103(c)(4)-(9).

If you are claiming qualified alien status, you must present two (2) of the following forms of documentation of identity and immigration status, as determined by the United States Department of Homeland Security to be acceptable for verification through the SAVE program:

- I-327 (Reentry permit);
- I-551 (Permanent Resident Card);
- I-571 (Refugee Travel Document);
- I-766 (Employment Authorization Card);
- · Certificate of Citizenship;
- Naturalization Certificate;
- Machine Readable Immigrant Visa (with Temporary I-551 Language);
- Temporary I-551 Stamp (on passport or I-94);
- Unexpired foreign passport;
- WT/WB Admission Stamp in unexpired foreign passport;
- I-20 (Certificate of Eligibility for Nonimmigrant (F-1) Student Status):
- DS-2019 (Certificate of Eligibility for Exchange Visitor (J-1) Status); or
- Any other document determined by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security to be acceptable through the Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements (SAVE) Program created pursuant to the federal Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986.
- Note: Neither a driver's license nor a social security number or card are acceptable forms of documentation.

If you are claiming qualified alien status but are unable to present two (2) forms of documentation listed above (for the claim of qualified alien status), then you shall present at least one (1) such document, which shall then be verified through the SAVE program. Failure to provide two (2) forms of documentation will result in a delay to determining eligibility for licensure.

If you are claiming that you are a foreign national not physically present in the United States, please contact the program issuing the license, registration, certification, or other benefit for which you are applying to provide such documentation as may be required to verify such status.
