

TENNESSEE BOARD OF CHIROPRACTIC EXAMINERS

Policy Statement on compliance with The Consumer Right-to-Know Law under T.C.A. §§ 63-51-101 et Seq.

A Chiropractic Physician licensed in Tennessee is required to furnish, among other things, certain information including education, primary practice address, professional certifications, and history of any disciplinary actions taken against licensee within the last ten (10) years to the Tennessee Department of Health for dissemination to the public. Should there be changes to already reported information, each practitioner must update the profile and submit the information to the department within thirty (30) days after the occurrence of the event causing the change or the attainment of a status that is required to be reported.

Should the Tennessee licensed Chiropractic Physician fail to provide requested information or notify the Health Department within thirty (30) days of any change in submitted information, it may be grounds for further discipline by the Board as follows:

1. The Board may refuse to issue a license to any provider applying for initial licensure who fails to provide the requested information
2. The Board may refuse to renew a license to any provider who fails to submit or update the required information
3. A complaint may be filed against any licensed provider who fails to submit and/or update the required information for formal disciplinary action and the board may assess a civil penalty in the amount of fifty dollars ($50.00) for each day of non-compliance.

ADOPTED BY THE BOARD OF CHIROPRACTIC EXAMINERS ON THE 26th DAY OF JANUARY, 2017.
