Interpretation of Rules for international applicant licensure

Staff asked for an interpretation of Rule 1200-06-01-.22 (1)(a) (2) (iv) as it applies to international applicants. If an international applicant has 5 years of experience working in the States, can the administrative staff approve the license with the same requirements of an out of state applicant that does not have a formal training program?

Currently, all internationally trained applicants must appear before the Board for licensure approval because their training programs are not NAACLS approved and their work experience is not in CLIA accredited laboratories. Some of these applicants have been working in the States for several years in CLIA accredited laboratories. Their transcript evaluations state that their international degrees are equivalent to degrees from regionally accredited institutions. Since the international training programs are not recognized by the Board, can these applicants be treated in the same manner as out of state applicants that did not attend formal training programs?

The Committee members decided that an international applicant that has 5 years of experience in the United States in a CLIA approved laboratory, does not have to appear before the Board. The applicant must have all other qualifications that are required of an out of state applicant that did not attend a training program, as per Rule 1200-06-01-.22 (1)(a) (2) (iv).

The international applicant would submit a 5-year work experience letter, proof of national certification, and a transcript evaluation that shows 16 semester hours chemistry, 16 semester hours biology and 3 semester hours of math.
