NOTICE OF DOCKET FILING PROCEDURES

October 10, 2018

As a reminder to all persons with business before the Tennessee Public Utility Commission: all petitions and filed documents must be filed with the docket room in accordance with the Commission's Rules and Regulations of Practice and Procedure in Chapter 1220-01-01. These rules may be accessed from the Commission website at <https://www.tn.gov/tpuc.html> or directly from the Tennessee Secretary of State website at <https://publications.tnsosfiles.com/rules/1220/1220.htm>. To ensure timely and accurate filings, please review and be familiar with these rules.

Of note, for entry into a docket file, all electronic filings are to be emailed to tpuc.docketroom@tn.gov; not to any particular employee of the Commission. Electronic filings shall be followed by an original and 4 additional printed copies received by the Commission, or postmarked, no later than the established due date. When printed/paper filings are filed, the filing should contain an original and 13 additional printed copies. Unless otherwise directed by the Commission, all filings are required to be filed with the docket room by 2:00 p.m. (central) on the established due date.

Should you have any questions concerning the rules or procedures for submitting filings with the Commission, please contact Sharla Dillon at (615) 770-6850 or Ectory Lawless at (615) 770-6898.
