New Dashboard on TNCrimeOnline!

The new Dashboard feature should be available on the TNCrimeOnline–TIBRS contributing agencies website by the first part of October! Please take a look at it and feel free to let one of the statistical analysts know if you have any questions about using it.

All of the previous newsletters are archived at the bottom of the TIBRS page. Agencies can find the current newsletter there as well.

IMPORTANT!! Please be sure you do not wait until the end of the month to enter all of your data. Data should be entered in a timely manner after it is received. This includes corrections to error reports and Quality Control issues.

Please be aware that the fax number for the CJIS Support Center has changed. All faxes should be sent to 615-744-4555.

2014 Campus Enrollment Figures

All RACs of colleges/universities reporting to TIBRS should receive a memo in the mail the first week of October regarding collection of enrollment figures for the fall term of 2014. The figures should reflect the student enrollment for the fall term of your institution as of September 30, 2014. The form should be completed by October 24, 2014. Directions on submitting the form are included in the memo. Please let a staff member at the CJIS Support Center know if you did not receive the memo.

Another TNCrimeOnline Class to be Offered this Fall

Another class will be offered this winter on using and generating reports with the Tennessee Crime Online Utility. This website is a very useful tool for agencies to monitor the quality of their data entry, as well as run their own reports on the variables that are important to them.

The class will cover the different portions of the website and how to use them. At the end of the class, attendees will understand how Crime Online is set-up and will be able to run their own agency reports, including reports to check for common quality control issues in the data.

The class will be split into two sections: Beginner and Advanced. Please see the information below to determine if you would like to attend one or both.

Examples of the Topics that will be Covered

Beginner

- Overview of all tabs and buttons/how to navigate TNCrimeOnline
- Overview of the type of data included in each “data cube”
- Using reports on the “front page” (QC reports/agency summary, etc.)
- Creating a basic report

Advanced

- Creating advanced reports (looking at more than one variable at a time)
- Utilizing advanced features of TNCrimeOnline
- Exporting and analyzing data in Microsoft Excel
- How to utilize the new Dashboard

Class space is limited. To register for one or both of the classes, please contact Dale King at Dale.King@tn.gov or 615-744-4026.

If you have any questions or suggestions for the class, please contact Caitlin Orman (615-744-4136; Caitin.Orman@tn.gov) or Kelsie Conrad (615-744-4016; Kelsie.Conrad@tn.gov).

Reporting Cargo Theft

The following information was provided by the FBI's Uniform Crime Reporting program and was sent to agencies during the Cargo Theft Review.

"Thefts from United Parcel Service (UPS), Federal Express (FedEx), the U.S. mail, etc., are considered to be cargo until items are received at a final distribution point. Once the business receives the items (that is, personnel at the company sign for the goods), the goods are no longer considered cargo because they are outside of the supply chain. Therefore, deliveries from UPS, FedEx, etc., to individuals or other businesses (e.g., flowers, pizza, electronics, appliances, etc.) are not considered to be cargo because they are outside of the supply chain.

If a truck arrives at a store but the store has not received the items (no one has signed a bill of lading for the goods) and the items are stolen, the incident is considered to be cargo theft because the commercial shipment is still in the supply chain.

If there is a bill of lading reserved for a commercial shipment and the theft occurs before the shipment can be delivered or it is not possible for the receiver to acknowledge the receipt of goods, it is considered cargo theft."

For TIBRS reporting purposes, the definition of Cargo Theft, cargo shall be deemed as moving in commerce at all points between the point of origin and the final destination, regardless of any temporary stop while awaiting transshipment or otherwise. Please review the Cargo Theft tip on the TIBRS website for more information and scenarios.

For TIBRS Reporting, please remember that Cargo Theft is only applicable for the following offenses. Therefore, the Cargo Theft indicator should be left blank for any other offenses.

- ◆ Robbery (120)
- ◆ Theft From a Building (23D)
- ◆ Theft From a Motor Vehicle (23F)
- ◆ All Other Larceny (23H)
- ◆ Fraud, False Pretenses/Swindle/Con (26A)
- ◆ Fraud, Credit Card/ATM (26B)
- ◆ Fraud, Impersonation (26C)
- ◆ Fraud, Wire Fraud (26E)
- ◆ Extortion/Blackmail (210)
- ◆ Burglary (220)
- ◆ Motor Vehicle Theft (240)

- ◆ Bribery (510)

TIBRS Class Attendance

If you have signed up for a TIBRS class, but are unable to attend, please contact Dale King via email as soon as possible (Dale.King@tn.gov). Many of our classes meet the maximum number of participants and are then marked “FULL” on the TBI web site. Once the class is full, we cannot add anyone else to the roster.

Unfortunately, in some of our recent classes, several agencies have had several roster slots reserved (in some cases 5 to 6 people), but have not shown up for the class and did not notify us that they would not be able to attend. We realize that things come up that prevent agencies from attending, but if you know – even one day ahead of time – that you won’t be attending, please contact Dale and let him know. We can contact other agencies who have expressed interest in attending. Thanks!!
