

Travis Murphy
Assistant Commissioner
Tennessee Department of Veterans Services

Travis Murphy joined the Tennessee Department of Veterans Services in September of 2015 and currently serves as Assistant Commissioner for the Appeals & Accreditation Division.

Prior to the joining the Tennessee Department of Veterans Services, Travis served for a number of years as General Counsel and Counsel to the United States Senate's Committee on Veterans' Affairs. His previous professional experiences also include service as the Deputy Director for Claims with The American Legion and as a senior researcher with the Massachusetts General Court's Joint Committee on Veterans and Federal Affairs.

Mr. Murphy is a veteran with seven years of military service including a deployment to Iraq in March of 2003 with the 3rd Battalion, 18th Field Artillery in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom and National Guard service with units in Massachusetts and Virginia.

Travis, his wife Meghan and three children currently reside in Nashville, Tennessee.