

Cindy Humphrey is currently the Southeast Regional Coordinator for Army Survivor Outreach Services. She is responsible for 31 State Coordinators in 12 states and Puerto Rico, ensuring that they have the training and resources necessary to care for over 11,300 Army Survivors. Cindy is also the G-1 Sergeant Major for the Tennessee Army National Guard located in Nashville, TN. She has served both active duty and currently in the National Guard with over 31 years of service. She has held many roles related to the Casualty field including Military Funeral Honors, Casualty Assistance and Notification Officer and as a Tennessee State Coordinator for Army Survivor Outreach Services prior to her promotion to Region Coordinator. She continues to serve the veteran community as the Vice-President of the Tri-Cities Military Affairs Council as well as the Women Veterans of East TN group. She is originally from Massachusetts but now resides in Johnson City with her wife.