WHERE LUXURY AND COMFORT MEET CREATIVITY

The Tennessean, Marriott and Maker Exchange are a trio of connected properties providing a unique opportunity for locals and out-of-towners alike to enjoy unmatched hospitality, meals, beverages and, an ever-changing, shoppable collection of Knoxville-made art and fine crafts. This partnership of spaces makes it ideal for Knoxville residents and hotel guests to gather for private events or the vibrant, rotating schedule of maker events.

Amongst the three properties, you'll find two restaurants/bars. The Drawing Room at The Tennessean exudes elegance, offering carefully crafted cocktails and meticulously prepared bites. Maker Exchange features a tavern overlooking World's Fair Park with creative, pub fare. Comfortable networking spaces, a coffee shop, pool table, foosball, shuffleboard, unique shopping in The Curio, and 16,000 square feet of meeting and event spaces make up the rest of Maker Exchange. All of the spaces throughout the properties are available for enjoyment by hotel guests and locals.
