Mother's and Father’s Day 2013

Mother's Day and Father's Day are special Sundays designated for two of the most important people in your life. This year Mother's Day is on Sunday, May 12, 2013, while Father's Day is on Sunday, June 16, 2013. Here is some additional information on those days.

The History

In May 1908 Anna Jarvis organized the first observances in Grafton, West Virginia, and Philadelphia. This annual celebration became popular, and Jarvis asked members of Congress to set aside a day to honor mothers. In 1914 Congress designated the second Sunday in May as Mother's Day.

In 1909 Sonora Dodd of Spokane, Washington, heard a Mother's Day sermon. Dodd wanted a special day to honor her father, William Smart. Her father was a widowed Civil War veteran who was left to raise his six children on a farm. Since June was Smart's birth month the Spokane mayor proclaimed June 17, 1910, as the first Father's Day celebration. The first presidential proclamation honoring fathers was issued in 1966 when President Lyndon Johnson designated the third Sunday in June as Father's Day. Father's Day was legalized in 1972.

Total nonfarm employment increased by 800 jobs from February 2013 to March 2013. There was a large increase in mining/logging/ construction (up 1,200 jobs), as well as smaller seasonal increases in leisure/hospitality (up 300 jobs), health care/social assistance, local government, and retail trade (each up 200 jobs). This was partially offset by decreases in wholesale trade (down 500 jobs), administrative/support/ waste management (down 300 jobs), and educational services and federal government (both down 200 jobs).

During the past 12 months, nonfarm employment increased by 21,500 jobs. During that time, goods-producing jobs increased by 4,000, while service-providing jobs increased by 17,500 .
