25 every day.
                                                       1 they're grandfathered. You mean without having to
1 moving right along, the next -- the calendar
                                                       2 go back and do inspections?

                                                                              MR. RADER: That's correct.
                       MR. RADER: Mr. Chairman,
                                                                              MR. HERROD: I don't think
 5 before we depart, I would like an update where we
                                                       5 they're -- no, I don't think it's grandfathered
 6 are with the residential elevators in these 6 in. That's not the way we have seen it. They're
 7 overnight rentals. Where are we with that to this
                                                       7 open to inspections.
8 point?
                                                       8
                                                                    I will just have to say I'm not up to
                       MR. HERROD: I wish I could --
                                                       9

10 this is Tom Herrod, Assistant Commissioner. I do
                                                       10 just have Mr. McPherson relay that information to 11 you. We can certainly have it for the next
11 not have any update. I know that the last time I
12 spoke with Mr. McPherson, that they were going to 12 meeting, but if we need it before then, we can 13 these places and doing those inspections as they 13 contact you via email and give you that 14 became aware of them. And so that's all I can -- information.
15 I don't know how many they've actually done, but I
                                                      15
                                                                              MR. RADER: Oh, as far as I'm
16 know that they were going to start doing those 16 concerned, the next meeting would be fine.
17 type of inspections.
                                                       17
                                                                              MR. HERROD: Okay. All right.
18
                I think I can have Mr. McPherson send 18 We'll have that available. I'm sorry we didn't 19 you an email with that information after the

                                                       20 would have been able to speak to it but --
21
                       MR. RADER: But as it relates 21
                                                                              MR. RADER: He's frozen up.
