

If I had a choice to go in the past or future, I'll pick the past. I would like to go to the past of Nashville, Tennessee, home where my grandmamma live. It would be fun to see more of grandmamma (big mamma), she's not really that big. I would like to see her at the age of fifteen and up.

I would like to spend more time with my grandmamma before she passed away on August 15, 2010.

Essay #4Score Point: 2

This flawed essay fails to demonstrate proficiency in expository writing skills. The writer directly addresses the prompt by choosing a place in time to visit and provides an explanation for that choice ("fun to see more of grandmamma"). Although the response reveals some errors in mechanics, usage, and sentence structure, its primary weakness is that it displays very little development.
