BREAKING TRADITIONS
BEST PRACTICES AWARD

PREPARING STUDENTS FOR NONTRADITIONAL CAREERS

~ Winner will be featured in the fall "CTE in Tennessee" newsletter ~

The Career and Technical Education (CTE) Division of the Tennessee Department of Education would like to recognize a high school CTE Best Practice that successfully promotes nontraditional courses to students.

To be considered for the "Breaking Traditions Best Practice" award, simply answer the questions below in a 500 words or less summary.

- ✓ How does the best practice/strategy remove barriers that prevent students from making informed education and career choices?
- ✓ What impact has this practice had on the number of students taking a nontraditional pathway in your school?
- ✓ What data or evidence do you have that supports your best practice?

Must be postmarked on or before
