About for From the Heart of Tennessee Products

The Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) provides assistance to over seven million persons with mental retardation and other developmental disabilities. The majority of those persons can or will be able to perform a variety of jobs.

The Division of Intellectual Disabilities Services' (DIDS) From the Heart of Tennessee program addresses the potential and capabilities of the persons it supports. Residents at the Division's three developmental centers craft and produce a variety of products such as bird houses, greeting cards, dog treats and bath salts.

The residents' fashion their products at adaptive work stations utilizing innovative and customized tools under the guidance of center staff. Their wares are sold at Tennessee State Parks and various businesses.

From the Heart of Tennessee provides a grand avenue for creativity, productivity and independence. It is a showcase for motivation, commitment and dedication with a healthy dose of inspiration. From the Heart of Tennessee is about the abilities of people.
