NASHVILLE – Area employers are invited to attend the Tennessee Department of Labor and Workforce Development's open house on Thursday, April 26, 2001, from 9:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m. at the Union City office.

The office which is an affiliate site of the Northwest Tennessee Career Center, is ready to help the state's business community through many services, including:

- publicizing job openings
- recruiting qualified personnel
- pre-screening applicants for jobs
- managing on-site interviews
- providing information on available tax credits
- assisting employees through downsizing and closures
- providing key wage data and labor market information
- seeking various training programs for your employees

The office is located at 1418 Stad Avenue in Union City. All area employers are invited to attend.
