

2021-22 Reimbursement Process Tennessee Universal Reading Screener

Pearson is happy to partner with the Tennessee Department of Education (TDOE) to support the Tennessee Universal Reading Screener. Due to the timing of the announcement of the partnership, the aimswebPlus team acknowledges that many Tennessee districts have already contacted Pearson to create a new account or renew their current contract. The District Lead (district account manager) for an existing aimswebPlus account will need to contact the aimswebPlus team for assistance in transitioning your account from a district-purchased aimswebPlus account to a free, no cost Tennessee Universal Reading Screener account.
