Safe Schools Annual Report  School Year 2016-17

Overview

The Schools Against Violence in Education (SAVE) Act established specific school safety planning and reporting requirements for Tennessee schools and the department of education. The act specifically directs the commissioner of education to provide an annual report to the governor and the General Assembly regarding the ability of schools to provide a safe and supportive learning environment.

The following report identifies the number of serious incidents that occurred in Tennessee schools during the 2016-17 school year as well as a summary of the resources and strategies currently being used in schools and districts across the state.

Serious Incidents in Tennessee Schools

Serious incidents related to student discipline in Tennessee schools are tracked via the department's student management information system. For the purposes of this report, the department has developed a measure entitled the School Safety Index which encompasses those incidents deemed to be most directly related to the safety and welfare of students including the following:

- Possession of a handgun
- Possession of a rifle or shotgun
- Possession of an explosive or incendiary device
- Possession of a weapon other than a firearm
- Assault of a teacher or staff member
- Assault of a student
- Sexual assault
- Aggravated assault of a teacher or staff member
- Aggravated assault of a student
- Attempted homicide

Below you will find an abbreviated index for Tennessee for the past four years (Figure 1).

Please Note: Bullying and harassment are considered serious issues, but for this report they are not included in the School Safety Index. Please see section on bullying below for further information.

The total numbers of the above incidents that have been reported for the school year are divided by the school's average daily membership to arrive at a School Safety Index score. The full School Safety Index report, disaggregated by school and district, is included in Appendix A.

Schools Against Violence in Education (SAVE) Act of 2007

The SAVE Act (T.C.A. § 49-6-801-814) establishes specific and consistent requirements for school districts in providing a safe school environment. The SAVE Act requires Tennessee school districts to adopt and annually review district and school-level safety plans. Districts are required to complete the self-assessment, reconvene their district emergency operations planning team, review and update their existing district-wide emergency operations plan, and submit as requested an electronic copy in ePlan, Tennessee's online planning and grants management system. ePlan is designed to promote collaboration among stakeholders, allowing for easier program monitoring, and provides the department the capability to retrieve districts' updated emergency operations plan and the response roster for every district and school.

The SAVE Act requires the commissioner to establish a state-level safety team to assist districts with compliance. The state-level safety team met in October 2016 to begin the process of developing an emergency operations plan template for use by districts in preparing their district-level and school-level emergency operations plans. The template outlines the responsibilities of the school district and individual schools in meeting SAVE Act compliance requirements. In April 2017, Tennessee Organization of School Superintendents (TOSS), expanded the accessibility of the template by providing school districts the ability to utilize the template in an online format. This capability has streamlined the Emergency Operations Plan (EOP) process and increased collaboration with local emergency response partners. A copy of the new template can be found here.

In conjunction with the new EOP template, the state safety team developed a revised plan for submission and review of district-level emergency operations plan. Districts will now be required to submit their plan on a five year rotation. In 2016-17, thirty districts were asked to submit their plans for review. Every year thereafter, thirty districts will submit plans for review. Emergency operations plans will continue to be reviewed in collaboration with Homeland Security, the Department of Health, the Department of Mental Health, Commerce and Insurance, and the Tennessee Emergency Management Association. An abbreviated version of the SAVE Act self-assessment document is provided as Appendix B.

Tennessee School Safety Specialist Program

Acknowledging limited resources and the myriad of issues schools are facing with regard to safety, the department's office of safe and supportive schools unveiled the Tennessee School Safety Specialist Program (TSSSP) in June 2015. The TSSSP provides the SAVE Act contact for districts' ongoing training and information on national and state best practices, as well as exemplary resources for school safety, security, intervention/prevention, and emergencypreparedness planning.

The intent of TSSSP is to ensure that every school district has at least one highly trained person in basic school safety planning and the development of high-quality emergency operations plans. Directors of schools are asked to submit the SAVE Act contact from their district to participate in TSSSP. Participants complete a five-day basic training program to attain the TSSSP recognition. A fifth cohort training was conducted in April of 2017 bringing the total number of school safety specialists to 155 . In September 2017, a safety summit focusing on "lessons learned" was held for all graduates of TSSSP.

Federal Emergency Management Grant

In 2015, the department received an emergency management grant from the U.S. Department of Education. The two-year grant concluded in March 2017. Through the emergency management grant, the Tennessee School Safety Center was successful in increasing its capacity by adding a full-time director to increase training and technical assistance to school districts in the development and implementation of high-quality school EOPs. Training opportunities included a hazards identification risk assessment tool, a comprehensive EOP school and school facility template, a template for memorandum of understanding, and an overview of National Incident Management System (NIMS) to include Incident Command System (ICS).

The grant also provided the opportunity to implement the best practice school safety mentor program. The program provides one-on-one assistance, training, and support to school districts on the development of high-quality emergency operations plans. Drawing from the cadre of highly trained Tennessee school safety specialists, best practice school safety mentors were selected to serve the three grand divisions. A mentor from education is paired with a mentor selected from emergency management. This pairing ensures that districts receive the support necessary to expand and enhance their current initiatives around school safety. The mentor program is unique to Tennessee and has the potential to receive national recognition as a best practice for school safety.

Safe Schools Act of 1998

The Safe Schools Act of 1998 established a matching grant program for Tennessee schools. Safe schools funds are available to all Tennessee school districts and may be used for a variety of safety and violence prevention activities including school resource officers, security and surveillance equipment, and violence prevention programs. The amount of funding available through this program has remained level at approximately $$ 4.8$ million since 2001. A summary of the grants to individual districts and the purposes for which they are used is attached as Appendix C.

In addition to funding for districts, the Safe Schools Act provides a relatively small amount of funding, approximately $$ 245,000$, to the department to support training activities under the auspices of the Tennessee School Safety Center. A summary of the training provided is attached as Appendix D.

Bullying

In 2012, the Tennessee General Assembly adopted legislation (Public Chapter 992) to require the department to "report on the number of bullying cases brought to the attention of school officials during the preceding year and the manner in which they were resolved or the reason they are still pending."

Pursuant to this provision, the Bullying and Harassment Compliance Report was released in December 2015. Based on the information available, each school district in Tennessee satisfied the requirements of the state bullying and harassment laws (i.e., T.C.A. § 49-6-1014-§ 49-6-1019) and submitted bullying compliance information on its compliance report form. The 2015 bullying compliance report can be found at on the department's website (here).

To support school staff and administrators on bullying, harassment, and applicable state and federal laws, a series of Bullying Policy to Practice trainings were conducted in September 2016 and April 2017. In addition, the department continues to support the availability of certified Olweus Bullying Prevention Trainers. There are currently 88 certified trainers available to support Tennessee schools. A listing of trainers can be found on the department's website here.

Conflict Resolution and Character Education

State law T.C.A. § 49-2-118 and § 49-6-1007 requires that the commissioner of education report annually regarding the implementation of conflict resolution and character education programs in Tennessee schools. Based on the SAVE Act self-assessment, conflict resolution programs were used in 651 schools and character education programs were used in 819 schools.

School Security/Law Enforcement Partnerships

As evidenced by activity across the state, Tennessee schools and communities are reviewing current policies and practices and searching for viable options to enhance the security of schools. The most popular and widely practiced model is the school resource officer (SRO). The first SRO program began in Rutherford County over 20 years ago. A partnership between schools and law enforcement, the SRO is a duly trained and sworn officer of a law enforcement agency whose specific duty assignment is a school. Tennessee SROs are required to receive 40 hours of basic SRO training within the first year of their assignment and a minimum of 16 hours per year afterward. A memorandum of understanding (MOU) between the district and the law enforcement agency is required. Typically, the MOU specifies the role and responsibility of the SRO, how the officer will be selected or assigned to a school, how the position will be funded, and how supervision and training will occur.

Specific SRO responsibilities vary from district to district; however, most SROs follow a community policing model that emphasizes the importance of the SRO developing positive relationships with students and staff. These officers typically become an important part of the school community.

Districts report annually to the department regarding their SRO programs. Figure 2 shows the percentage of SROs assigned to high school, middle school, and elementary schools in the state. A total of $\mathbf{9 2 5}$ full-time equivalent SRO positions were reported.

Compared to the 2015-16 school year there has been a nine percent increase in the number of SROs assigned to schools. At an estimated cost range of $$ 40,000$ to $$ 80,000$ per officer, many districts and jurisdictions that added officers after the Sandy Hook tragedy found it difficult to maintain the level of funding necessary to continue with the additional SROs.

For those districts that have not been able to find the funds, or in some cases qualified officers, to allow coverage of all schools, alternative partnerships with county and city law enforcement agencies have been expanded. These partnerships secure an ongoing law enforcement presence without the specific assignment of a full-time officer to every school. Examples of this practice include modifications of patrol assignments to include more frequent school visits-sometimes including the use of schools as satellite offices-and the use of reserve or retired officers to provide a basic security presence without implementation of the full SRO model. While not as comprehensive as the traditional SRO model, this option provides school districts with additional support for instances where funding or needs might preclude a full-time SRO.

A second option for some schools and districts has been the use of licensed security guards. Some potential benefits of this model include reduced cost and reduced hiring time. However, a weakness of this model is that security guards receive far fewer hours of training than police officers. Additionally, security guards do not have arrest powers beyond that of any citizen of Tennessee and have different investigative authority than police officers.

Pursuant to the School Security Act of 2013, a third option would allow a person employed by districts as a faculty or staff member to carry a firearm on school grounds if the person is: (1) authorized to carry a firearm; (2) has written authorization from the director of schools; (3) is a law enforcement officer or has certain former law enforcement officer service and is in compliance with all standards and training commission regulations; and, (4) has completed 40 hours of basic SRO training. The use of this option is confidential; thus, we are unable to report the extent of usage.

Federal Safe and Supportive Schools Demonstration Grant (S3)

 In 2010, Tennessee was one of eleven states awarded a Safe and Supportive Schools Demonstration Grant (S3) from the U.S. Department of Education. The overall mission of the S3 project was to ensure safe and supportive learning environments for all students. The project was rooted in research that demonstrated positive school climate is associated with stronger academic performance, higher graduation rates, decreased incidences of violence, and increased teacher retention.Though the S3 grant concluded in 2015, a sustainable product was the development of a measurement system to assess school climate. A free resource for schools and districts, the school climate survey asks students, teachers, and parents about their school experience in the three broad areas of (1) engagement (2) safety and (3) environment. This allows for comparison among student, parent and teacher surveys for a school. School level data can be aggregated to develop district level reports. In 2016-17, 34 districts and 221 schools voluntarily utilized the school climate survey. A more in-depth description of the project, including the measurement constructs and participating districts, is attached in Appendix E.

Restorative Practices and ACEs Training

Beginning in the 2017-18 school year, chronic absenteeism will be a part of district and school accountability. The measure will be called the Chronically Out-of-School Indicator. In order to be successful in addressing chronic absenteeism, it is important that we view attendance as more than a legal or compliance issue and try to understand what factors may be contributing to a student's absences.

Exclusionary discipline, suspension and expulsion, is a factor in the Chronically Out-of-School Indicator. For students, the behaviors that result in exclusionary discipline may result in adverse outcomes for the student and community including increasing student risk for involvement in the justice system.

To support districts in reducing the use of exclusionary discipline, the department offers Restorative Practices training. Restorative practices have been proven effective in reducing misbehavior, bullying, violence, and crime among students while improving the overall climate for learning.

While there is a great deal of importance placed on academic outcomes, research shows that non-academic factors play a crucial role in student success. These factors include health and safety, behavioral, and social and personal needs.

In 2017, the office of safe and supportive schools developed the Building Strong Brains: Strategies for Educators training program to empower school leaders and teachers to address chronic childhood trauma, or what experts call adverse childhood experiences (ACEs), in the school and classroom. The Building Strong Brains: Strategies for Educators training program is a fundamental aspect of the department's goal to provide support to school districts to recognize and address ACEs and to promote healing and resilience in order to help all students succeed in school and in life.

Safe Schools Annual Report

APPENDICES

APPENDIX A: SCHOOL SAFETY INDEX

Description: The SAVE Act states that "the commissioner shall report to the governor and the General Assembly concerning the prevalence of violent and disruptive incidents in the public schools." To fulfill this legislative mandate, the department has developed the School Safety Index. For each school, the reported sum of school safety incidents is divided by the school's average daily membership to arrive at a percentage of enrollment or School Safety Index score. A higher index score indicates a relatively higher level of reported incidents. Schools that did not report any of the incidents identified below will not appear in the index:

Possession of a handgun
Possession of a rifle or shotgun
Possession of an explosive or incendiary device
Possession of a weapon other than a firearm
Assault of a teacher or staff member
Assault of a student
Sexual assault report
Aggravated assault of a teacher or staff member
Aggravated assault of a student
Attempted homicide

SAFE SCHOOLS ANNUAL REPORT

APPENDIX B:

SAVE ACT SELF-ASSESSMENT

Description: In addition to submitting annual updates to their emergency response plans, districts conduct a self-assessment and provide a summary of prevention and intervention strategies being utilized, as well as assurances from the director of schools that key school safety policy requirements are being addressed. The complete SAVE Act compliance process can be reviewed online at: https://www.tn.gov/education/health-and-safety/school-safety/save-act.html .

An abbreviated version of the district self-assessment document follows.

A FRAMEWORK FOR BUILDING AND PRESERVING SAFE AND SUPPORTIVE LEARNING ENVIRONMENTS

Schools Against Violence in Education (SAVE) Act of 2007

Tenn. Code Ann. § 49-6-801-814, the SAVE Act, establishes specific school safety planning requirements for schools and school districts. The Compliance/Self-Assessment Instrument provides a framework for school districts to use in assessing and reporting their school safety planning activities.

1. 1.0: EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT

A district and school level emergency response plan (ERP) has been developed in conjunction with local emergency response agencies. The ERP is fluid and encompasses a multi-hazard approach to planning.

|  | Indicators of Success | Met | Not Met/ Action Plan Required | In Progress/ Action Plan Required | Not Applicable/ Explanation Required |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
| 1.1 | A district and school level emergency response plan (ERP) has been developed in coordination with local emergency response agencies and other appropriate stakeholders including the following: police and fire departments, emergency management agency, EMS, local medical facilities, administrators, staff, parents and students, school nurse(s), school resource officer(s), mental health agencies, school transportation personnel and other appropriate community representatives. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 1.2 | All district and school ERPs include the following elements: first responder team, postvention team, parent notification plan, plan for relocating and releasing students, designated primary and alternate evacuation routes, planning for school-sponsored events, field trips, bus emergencies and on-site and off-site command posts. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 1.3 | District and school ERPs follow FEMA's (Federal Emergency Management Agency) emergency management cycling including the following stages in planning: mitigation and prevention, preparedness, response, and recovery. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 1.4 | District and school ERPs integrate a multi-hazard approach to planning and annually assesses the following hazards: classrooms, community, structural and non-structural. When present, the SRO (School Resource Officer) conducts /or assists schools in these assessments. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 1.5 | The ERP has identified district and school safety teams with roles and responsibilities aimed at preventing, responding to and recovering from emergencies. Members include but not limited to the following individuals: director of schools, administrators, staff, parents, school bus personnel and local emergency response agencies. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |

|  | Indicators of Success | Met | Not Met/ Action Plan Required | In Progress Action Plan Required | Not Applicable/ Explanation Required |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
| 1.6 | The ERP designates district and school-level safety coordinators. The names of these individuals have been communicated to local emergency response agencies, administrators, staff and students, and other appropriate individuals. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 1.7 | An Incident Command System (ICS) for the district and school integrates a chain of command (outlined in an organizational chart) with a single incident commander and alternates to carry out the ERP. ICS utilizes FEMA's five functional areas including: command, operations, planning, logistics and finance/administration. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 1.8 | Each individual falling under the Incident Command System (ICS) has assigned and designated responsibilities during an emergency and received training accordingly. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 1.9 | Mutual aid agreements exist with local response agencies that outline the type of assistance, and identify a chain of command for activating the agreement, define a common language for communicating before, during and after an emergency, and include response agencies when conducting functional exercises. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 1.10 | The district and schools have readily available and provided a current copy of the ERP, floor plans/blueprints, schematics, and maps of the school interior and grounds to local emergency response agencies. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 1.11 | The district and school ERP has designated a first responder team of individuals trained in CPR, bloodborne pathogens, first aid, general emergency management and the use of an AED (automated external defibrillator). The first responder team is readily available to manage and care for students, administrators, staff, and visitors in the absence of or while awaiting local emergency response agencies. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 1.12 | The district ERP has integrated a recovery strategy into the plan that coordinates a postvention team available to each school. The team is accessible to provide counseling and other support for students, staff, and parents following an emergency or other traumatic event. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |

|  | Indicators of Success | Met | Not Met/ Action Plan Required | In Progress Action Plan Required | Not Applicable/ Explanation Required |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
| 1.13 | The district and school ERPs included an emergency transportation plan for moving students to an off-site location including at least two alternative sites (one of which is outside the local community). | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 1.14 | The district ERP has addressed any potential emergencies that might take place while transporting students and staff (a separate emergency plan for school buses is developed and revised annually or as needed). | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 1.15 | An internal and external communication plan is developed to ensure contact is established in a way that facilitates rapid and secure distribution of critical emergency information. Furthermore, plain language is developed and used for commands that alert administrators, staff, students and local emergency response agencies to the appropriate emergency response(s). | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
|  | The district ERP has outlined a media response/communication plan. At minimum the plan includes the following: a designated public information officer (PIO), the establishment of one unified message, plan for communicating information to parents and the community, identified and separate staging areas for the media, and guidelines on how to respond to media questioning during an emergency. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 1.17 | District, school, classroom, and bus emergency kits are on hand and include (when appropriate): specific emergency response plans (flip charts, crisis cards, etc.), staff and student emergency contact and medical information, bus route information, student release information, first aid kits and other appropriate items. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 1.18 | District and school ERPs address and plan for the distinct needs of special populations during an emergency such as disabled and/or non-English-speaking students and staff. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |

|  | Indicators of Success | Met | $\begin{aligned} & \text { Not Met/ } \\ & \text { Action Plan } \\ & \text { Required } \end{aligned}$ | In Progressl Action Plan Required | Not Applicablel Explanation Required |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
| 1.19 | The district and school ERPs have included plans for the documentation of administrative actions during an emergency. Such records might include the following: telephone logs, detailed description of events and actions taken, records of injuries and follow-up actions, accounting for administrators, staff and students. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 1.20 | The district and school ERPs have included plans for the notification of parents and parent pick up documentation, e.g. School Messenger, School Cast, etc. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 1.21 | In coordination with local emergency response agencies, the district and school has developed, disseminated and implemented emergency drills/procedures for the following: evacuation, reverse evacuation, lockdown, shelter-in-place, and drop, cover and hold. Administrators, staff, and students have been trained in these procedures. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 1.22 | The school district is engaged with local emergency planning committee in continuity of operations planning (COOP). Such planning might include: identifying mission-critical operations, developing alternative staffing plans for teachers and staff, developing plans for continuity of education, services for special needs population, and food services for students receiving free or reduced price lunches. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 1.23 | All components of the district and school ERP are reviewed and revised annually based on deficiencies identified through drills, exercises, and actual implementation. Any new potential hazards, safety issues, and/or threats (based on yearly assessments) are accounted for in the ERP. Revisions to the ERP are made in coordination with all appropriate stakeholders and delivered to local emergency response agencies ensuring that a current plan resides with these agencies at all times. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 1.24 | Consistent with Tenn. Code Ann. § 49-6-801 the district has made available a summary of the system-wide ERP for public comment at least (30) days prior to its adoption. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |

2.0: PREVENTION AND INTERVENTION

Some emergencies can be prevented and/or mitigated. School safety planning includes taking appropriate steps to prevent problems from developing in the first place. Districts should attempt to defuse a crisis before it occurs by creating supportive learning environments that strive to reduce potential risks to the greatest extent possible. This includes training administrators and staff to identify students who exhibit early warning signs for the potential use of violence.

| 2.3 | Administrators, staff, and transportation personnel are provided in-service training to teach positive social skills, healthy lifestyles, and violence prevention and fuse these topics into the curriculum | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 2.4 | Students have access to licensed school counselors who are implementing the Tennessee Comprehensive School Counseling Model and are empowered to make recommendations to outside social service agencies that can assist the student with his or her particular needs. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 2.5 | Parents, students and the community are partners with the district and school and take an active role in the collective responsibility for the safety of the schools. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 2.6 | Alternatives to suspension and expulsion have been built into the disciplinary policy and are appropriately and consistently used. Alternative education programs utilize best practices in the field as outlined in Tennessee's Model for Alternative Education. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |

1. 3.0: POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Carefully developed policies and procedures can help to reduce emergencies and compliment your existing emergency response plan (ERP). Effective policies and procedures outlining specific actions regarding day-to-day operations can help prevent, or reduce the chances of an emergency and/or crisis.

|  | Indicators of Success | Met | Not Metl Action Plan Required | In Progress Action Plan Required | Not Applicablel Explanation Required |
| 3.1 | The district and all schools have a written code of conduct based on stakeholder input that is revised annually, ensures safe and disciplined classrooms, avoids technical jargon, and is clearly communicated to staff, students and parents. (i.e. commonly found in the student handbook) | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 3.2 | Consistent with Tenn. Code Ann. § 49-6-1016, the school district has implemented a policy prohibiting and responding to an incident of harassment, intimidation, and bullying. This policy should be included in the code of conduct. The school district shall provide training to teachers and counselors regarding the policy and appropriate procedures relative to implementation of the policy. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 3.3 | The district has a formal procedure to receive, investigate, and respond to threats, an actual incident of violence, or other misconduct by students or staff. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 3.4 | The State Board of Education's Unsafe School Choice Policy is implemented and regularly communicated to administrators, teachers, staff and students. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 3.5 | A memorandum of understanding exists when a school resource officer is assigned to a particular school building. The MOU designates the SRO's role within the school environment and their responsibilities during an emergency. Furthermore, a MOU exists between the district and a local mental health agency. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |

| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
| 3.6 | The district has formal procedures in place that limit access to each educational facility to authorized students, administrators and staff. Procedures include a clearly marked and centralized point for screening all visitors. Each facility also has procedures for securing the school after hours and/or when unoccupied. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 3.7 | Consistent with Tenn. Code Ann. §. 49-5-413 the school district has conducted criminal history/background checks of all teachers and other employees working in close proximity to school children or children in a child care program. Pursuant to the legislation cited above, history/background checks are conducted on all vendors having direct contact or access to the grounds of a school or child care center when children are present. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 3.8 | The district has a policy that prohibits weapons on or in any educational facility. This policy has been communicated to administrators, staff, transportation personnel, students, parents and the community. Signs are posted in each facility that indicates the existence of this policy. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 3.9 | A certified fire marshal inspector has conducted an annual fire safety assessment of all educational facilities to ensure compliance with the guidelines set forth. Deficiencies are immediately addressed and remedied based on the inspector's findings. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 3.10 | The district has developed and implemented procedures for verifying that required and planned emergency drills (e.g. fire, severe weather, intruder) have been conducted at each school. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 3.11 | The district has adopted procedures for responding to reports of a firearm on campus. Procedures include the immediate notification of local law enforcement as required by Tenn. Code Ann. § 49-6-4209. | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |
| 3.12 | When the school district negotiates contracts with outside agencies, the district specifies appropriate measures to ensure the safety and general well being of students benefiting from those services (i.e. requiring an emergency response plan, training, drills, etc.). | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ | $\square$ |

1. 4.0: EVIDENCE INVENTORY

The Evidence Inventory provides a snapshot view of strategies and procedures that the district has in place to ensure a safe and supportive learning environment. Not all of the strategies and procedures listed below are appropriate or necessary for all schools. It is important, however, to periodically assess each of the broad areas identified. "Broadly Used" indicates that most schools in the district use this practice; "Limited Use" indicates some but less than half of schools in the district use this practice. "Initial/Trial Use" indicates new use of the practice in the district.

APPENDIX C: SAFE SCHOOLS GRANTS

Description: The Safe Schools Act of 1998 (T.C.A. § 49-6-4302) provides funding for school safety and violence prevention activities. Each district is eligible to receive funding based on the district's relative share of BEP funding. A 25 percent local match is required. Many school districts use their safe schools grant funds to provide a SRO. Other uses of these funds typically include security enhancements such as improved building access control or monitoring and violence prevention strategies such as counselors and alternative education improvements. This is a listing of the grant awards for this school year and how these funds will be utilized.

APPENDIX D: 2016-17 TRAINING SUMMARY

Description: Calendar of safety trainings for 2016-17 school year.

Bullying, Harassment, and Hazing: Policy and Best Practice Updates

A civil and respectful learning environment is an essential foundation for teaching and learning. To achieve that end, state law (T.C.A. § 49-6-4501 et al) mandates specific actions on the part of schools relative to bullying, harassment, and intimidation. This seminar provided an overview of these and other related requirements with a particular focus on insuring that policy is reflected in effective practice.

Conditions for Learning Forum

Hosted by student support and services, the Conditions for Learning Forum provided an opportunity for district leaders in administration, special populations, health, safety, nutrition, extended learning, early childhood, and other student/family support areas to learn about and share practices that enhance conditions for learning. The forum has a focus on the impact of Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs) on life outcomes with a particular emphasis on how exposure to trauma and adversity effects brain development, student behavior and academic performance. The critical role schools play in providing an environment conducive to building resiliency and ensuring positive youth development was also highlighted. The forum was held September 28-29, 2016.

School Engagement

For students to feel supported and motivated to achieve, they must feel valued and supported in their relationships with other students, teachers, and school leaders, feel a sense of connection to school, and be meaningfully engaged in the school community. The five components of school engagement include:

1. Supportive Peer Relationships: Students feel safe and supported in a peer environment that is trusting, respectful, caring, cooperative, and helpful.
2. Supportive Relationships with Teachers: Adults play a critical role in creating conditions that support student self-esteem, sense of accomplishment, and feelings of efficacy - all of these are critical for accomplishment and contribution later in life.
3. Supportive Relationships with School Leadership: School leadership by principals and vice-principals is important to modeling and setting the climate of the school as an institution with which students must effectively interact. School leaders should be available to students, and relate to them with openness, respect, and concern.
4. Parental Involvement: Student perceptions that parents are welcome in the school are important. It is also important that feel their parents are interested and involved in their learning and in school events contributes to a meaningful connectedness to the school.
5. School Connections and Learning Supports: Students believe that they are valued members of the school setting, feel a sense of meaningful involvement, security, and belonging in the school environment, and feel that they are supported in their efforts to succeed.

School Safety

For students to focus on learning, they must feel safe and secure while at school and free from threats or physical violence, bullying and harassment, or exposure to substance abuse and its negative consequences. The four components of school safety are:

1. Physical Safety: Students should perceive their school to be safe, secure, and free from any physical threats of harm to themselves or their personal property.
2. Freedom from Substance Abuse: Alcohol, tobacco, and other illicit drug use undermines student's ability to achieve academically, is associated with other harmful behaviors, and is incompatible with a school climate of respect, safety, and support for learning.
3. Freedom from Bullying: Bullying is one of the most prevalent and harmful forms of school violence. Students experience freedom from bullying when they report little or no exposure to physical, verbal, or social forms of unwanted aggression.
4. Acceptance of Differences: Tolerance is a core component of social and emotional safety at school. Students perceive acceptance of differences in background, appearance, and personal lifestyle among students in school environments that are free from teasing or insulting based on personal characteristics.

School Environment:

For students to feel engaged and motivated to learn, they should be in environments that value academic rigor and high expectations for student achievement, establish clear rules and procedures, and provide physical surroundings that are attractive and well-maintained. The three components of school environment are:

1. Supportive Discipline: Rules and disciplinary procedures are perceived to be clear, well communicated and reasonable. School leaders, teachers, and other staff (e.g. school resource officers, transportation staff) should be perceived as fair in implementing rules and procedures. Fairness requires consistency and equity in applying rules, including consistency across individual teachers and school staff.
2. Academic Challenge: School work needs to be clearly presented and designed to be challenging with sufficient support to achieve. Student achievements should be noted and positive feedback should be provided.
3. Approval of the Physical Environment: Students should approve of the physical appearance of the school. It should be seen as welcoming, comfortable, and attractive. Students should feel a sense of ownership in the school building.
