Tennessee Guardsman, Henderson native graduates advanced training

HENDERSON, Tenn. – Spc. Wesley K. Chambers graduated from the Army's Basic Combat Training and the Chemical, Biological, Radiological, and Nuclear course at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, on Aug. 2, 2021.

During this technical 21-week program, Chambers graduated as a U.S Army CBRN Specialist and trained in defense operations, detection, decontamination, and biology. Upon completion, Chambers returned to Henderson's Headquarters Company, 1st Squadron, 278th Armored Cavalry Regiment.

“Joining the National Guard has been one of the best experiences in my life,” said Chambers. “I have met incredible people and participated in events that have changed my life for the better.”

Chambers is originally from South Africa and obtained his citizenship through his service in the Tennessee Army National Guard.
