Sparta native, Marine Corps veteran, enlists in Tennessee National Guard

SPARTA, Tenn. – Pfc. Bradley Goforth graduated from the Army’s 22-week One-Station Unit Training as a U.S. Army infantryman at Fort Benning, Georgia, on November 21, 2021.

During this mentally and physically taxing training program, Goforth learned marksmanship skills, physical training, and how to capture, destroy and deter enemy forces anywhere in any environment. He is now assigned to F Troop, 2nd Squadron, 278th Armored Cavalry Regiment.

“The Tennessee National Guard was the right decision for my family and I,” said Goforth. “I wanted to continue to serve my country, and now I will also be serving my state.”

Goforth previously served in the United State Marine Corps. He currently lives in Sparta with his wife, Michelle, and two children, Mason and Clayton.
