Wartburg native enlists in Tennessee National Guard

WARTBURG, Tenn. – Pvt. Storm Hammons graduated from the Army’s Basic Combat Training and the Basic Financial Management Technician Course at Fort Jackson, South Carolina, February 27.

During this technical 9-week course, Hammons was trained in budgeting, disbursing, and accounting for government funds. She can also efficiently prepare financial reports for effective budget management. Hammons is now assigned to the 1129th Finance Detachment in Nashville.

“I’m excited to use the skills I’ve learned at training with my new unit,” said Hammons. “I’m proud to wear this uniform and be a part of something bigger than myself.”

Hammons is a graduate of Central High School and intends on using the Guard’s education benefits to obtain a nursing degree.
