Martin Guardsman graduates basic training

MARTIN, Tenn. – Spc. Ryan Crittendon graduated from the U.S. Army’s Basic Combat Training and Advanced Individual Training at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, on Aug. 19.

During the intense 10 weeks of BCT, Crittendon trained in military discipline, fitness and marksmanship. He attended an additional seven weeks of advanced individual training and learned how to safely operate wheeled vehicles and transport troops through various types of terrain. He now serves with Tullahoma’s 1176th Transportation Company as a qualified transport operator.

“The National Guard opened a lot of opportunities to further my career and learn more in my civilian job,” said Crittendon.

Crittendon graduated from Westview High School in 2012.
