Event Overview

Welcome to the 2016 Diversity Business Marketplace! The Governor’s Office of Diversity Business Enterprise (Go-DBE) along with The University of Tennessee (UT) are excited to host a meaningful event that will encourage public and private sector businesses and entities to utilize diversity businesses in their procurement opportunities. The theme adopted for this year’s Diversity Business Marketplace is “G.R.O.W. Tennessee Small Businesses.” Go-DBE and UT encourage your organization to assist in the growth of small businesses by providing responsible communication about procurement opportunities that will allow them to become well-versed with your organization’s purchasing procedures and needs.

The 2016 Diversity Business Marketplace is the premier networking opportunity for minority, women, service-disabled veteran owned and small business enterprises looking to meet decision makers and procurement professionals of major corporations. While the Marketplace serves as a venue for “On the Spot” procurement opportunities and business workshops that educate and train diversity business enterprises, the networking opportunities and camaraderie make it a great vehicle to initiate new business contacts.

The Sponsorship Guide provides resourceful information regarding the 2016 Diversity Business Marketplace. Please pay special attention to the Important Dates and Deadline Summary page as these dates are crucial to the overall success of this event.

Contact Karen J. Binkley with The University of Tennessee with questions or for additional information regarding sponsorship opportunities at kbinkley@utk.edu or (865) 974-3311.
