And, of course, as Executive Director Cody pointed out, you can apply again in six months from July the 7th, you said? MS. VEST: I believe it's July the 7th. MR. RIGGS: Okay, thank you. CHAIRPERSON LANE: Good luck to you. Moving onto the next one, I am going to ask again if Mr. Davis is here. MR. RIGGS: I just remembered, he asked me he remembered me being here before, but I have never been here. CHAIRPERSON LANE: He's probably talking about the case. We don't have names when they first come before us. MR. RIGGS: I thought he meant I appeared

I do not have your budget for the end of the year, which ended in June, end of June. Every July 1st we start your program off with a zero balance. We must generate enough income to keep the program running. Now I don't know if it's kind of hard to read this, but that's why I have condensed down. Your revenue this is just as of May. Your revenue is $180,205.64. Your expenditures are $105,627.75. That left you a total of $74,577.89. Well, we have to put cost backs in there. And that is something that's new in your package, you can see

This is something that I show to you every month, but it is in a different format, that's why it's going to look a little different to you. In the month of March, you had one revocation on the activity we had in March. We didn't have any activity in April, May or June. Is everybody following? Okay. So you can just take a look. This has all our programs, of course, on there, but we are only concerned with yours. We did have the one consent order that we signed for the revocation, wasn't any other activity on your program. If there's no questions on that, we'll just move forward to the next one. That would be Exhibit E, which is the monthly reports. Dr. Ritch, this is Exhibit E. DR. RITCH: I'm looking at it, thank you, ma'am. MS. VEST: I have March, April, May and June in this packet. I'll go ahead and do March, but all of them are the same.
