good reputation for honesty, trustworthiness, integrity and competence to transact the business of broker, affiliate broker or time-share salesperson pursuant to T.C.A. 62-13-303(a)(1).

Brian McCormack, Assistant Commissioner Regulatory Boards: Assistant Commissioner McCormack will discuss various Commission and Regulatory Boards issues.

Legal Report: The legal report, presented to the Commission at each meeting, consists of summaries prepared by legal counsel of complaints which have been filed with TREC. The summaries are prepared in an anonymous fashion, and allegations within each complaint are summarized as well as the content of responses given to complaints filed. The Commission discusses the matters to determine whether there is probable cause that a violation of the Broker Act and/or the Commission's rules has taken place, and the Commission authorizes appropriate action. The matters to be presented include:

2015008101	2015015651
2015008102	2015014631

2015012761
2015012801
2015013291

Please note that the cases listed include only those in preparation at the time of publication of the Agenda and that after publication and prior to presentation, cases may be supplemented, deleted or added.

Consent Order Log: The Consent Order log consists of a spreadsheet maintained by legal counsel which lists information about Consent Orders which have been authorized by the Commission at previous meetings and sent to Respondents but have not yet been accepted. This log is maintained as a tracking mechanism to ensure that any Consent Order which is not accepted is timely transferred to a litigating attorney to prepare the matter for a formal hearing.

Education Report: Rule 1260-05-.01 requires satisfactory completion of certain courses in real estate by applicants for, and holders of, licenses as a broker or affiliate broker. The Broker Act and the Rules establish standards and procedures governing the establishment and operation of courses and instructors designed to satisfy those requirements, including, but not limited to, approval by the Commission. Courses and instructors which have been properly and timely submitted to the Commission and reviewed by the Education Director are presented in a table format to the Commission for discussion and determination whether the course should be approved for Tennessee real estate licensees and/or applicants and whether an instructor should be approved to teach a specified course.

Proposed Rules: The Commission has filed proposed rules with the TN Secretary of State's office which are scheduled to become effective 10/18/2015. An update on the status of the proposed rules will be given.

Education and Recovery Fund: Rule 1260-1-.11, TCA 62-13-107 and 62-13-108: Discussion of permitted educational expenditures of monies in the Education and Recovery account.

Licensing Statistics: Executive Director presents tables which contain statistics from the past month and from past years. The statistics may include the number of: licensees, exams given, licenses issued and licenses not renewed.

E&O Update: TCA 62-13-112 and Rule 1260-01-.16 require licensees to obtain, maintain and renew Errors and Omissions Insurance and to provide proof to the Commission. A license is placed in a suspended status if such proof is not submitted timely to the Commission. The Executive Director presents an update on the number of licensees in suspension and insured.

Complaint Report: Executive Director presents statistics for the current fiscal year regarding the number of complaints closed, opened, sent to litigation, the types of consent orders authorized by the Commission, the dollar amounts authorized, breakdown of monies received for the preceding month and the current fiscal year, the number of complaints involving property management and the Disciplinary Action Report.

Fingerprint Facts: TCA 62-13-303 and Rule 1260-01-.17 require all initial applicants to submit a complete and legible set of fingerprints in an electronic format through the state vendor. Executive Director presents compilation of numbers regarding applicants fingerprinted.

Budget: Each month the Commission has an opportunity to review the previous months' budget numbers which are prepared and distributed to Executive Director.

Commission members have opportunity to ask questions regarding the budget.
